7th International Banking & Finance Conference 2013

Road to Recovery and Growth – Role of Banks and Financial Sector

In any economy, the role of banks is pivotal to fueling and sustaining economic growth with due diligence and oversight of central monetary and regulatory agencies.

This is particularly true in today's world where growth is linked to global economic indicators. In the IMC's 7th Banking & Finance Conference, some of the leading bankers and professionals will discuss kind of reforms, funding and measures that are necessary to re-energize Indian economy at a time when economies around the world are beset by a sustained period of slackness.

This Conference will also focus on practical ways and means of promoting financial inclusion, a sine qua non for all round growth. The Conference will provide a forum for interaction by members of the Chamber with eminent bankers, finance professionals and other decision makers.

ABOUT IMC

Set up in 1907, the 106-year old Indian Merchants' Chamber is a premier Chamber of trade, commerce and industry in India with headquarters in Mumbai. It has over 3200 direct members, comprising a cross section of the business community, including public and private limited companies and over 200 trade and industry associations through which the Chamber reaches out to over 2,50,000 business establishments in the country. IMC got ISO 9002:2000 accreditation, the first Chamber to get this certification in the country which has since been upgraded to ISO 9001: 2008.

IMC has always worked towards the cause of upliftment of the Society, and has been organizing seminars, workshops, etc. for promotion of trade and investment and extending the hand of cooperation to the Society at the time of natural calamities like flood, earthquake, etc. IMC is always seized of the contemporary socio economic issues and make best efforts to find out the solution.

With its commitment towards social upliftment at the forefront, IMC has selected INCLUSIVE GROWTH as its theme for the year 2012-13.
